Dear readers:

Edmund Burke says: "He only deserves to be remembered by posterity who creates it up and preserves the history of his ancestors."

Wm. Montgomery Cameron, Genealogist, says: "No American family can produce a more distinguished or more distant lineage than the Montgomerys."

James Montgomery, born May 1, 1784, died July 9, 1830;
Foster Meade Montgomery, his wife, died January 25,

"A noble Roman was the root from which MONTGOMERY came;

Who brought his legion from the war and settled the same

Upon a HILL * twixt Rome and Spain, GOMERICUS by name;

From which he and his offspring do their sir name still retain."

From a poem written previous to 1700, credit to J. Montgomery Seiver for reprint. * Mount.

John and Margaret Montgomery were married Sept. 12, 1807, who was born in Kentucky February 11, 1783 and died Sept. 25, 1858. They are buried in the Sharon Cemetery in Iowa. Tradition says he received a grant of land for his services in the war of 1812. They were the parents of 7 children represented in this index by XI to XVI. The arabic figure representing the order in which born. X3 means that William A. was the 3rd child. The capital letters represent the grandchildren of John. X18 indicates the second born of the children of John. The small letters represent the 4th generation, the arabic figures representing the 5th generation, and the lowercase capital the 6th generation. X1A1 shows the 1st born of the 1st born of the 1st born of the 1st child of John and Margaret.

INDEX TO DECENDENTS
John and Margaret Montgomery
by Raymond F. Montgomery

Dear cousins:--

Edmund Burke says "He only deserves to be remembered by posterity who treasures up and preserves the history of his Ancestors."

Wm. Montgomery Clemens, Genealogist, says: "No American family can proclaim a more distinguished or more ancient lineage than the Montgomerys."

James Montgomery, born May 7, 1744, died July 9, 1820; Eleanor Means Montgomery, his wife, died January 29, 1824. Benjamin Montgomery, who died February 26, 1824, and Andrew Montgomery, who died Jan. 8, 1831 were probably brothers of James. Tradition says they were married at Five Mile Rock Bridge, Va. About 1804 they probably took a keel boat at Pittsburg and floated down the Ohio River to Maysville, Ky. and located in Bourbon Co., Ky. He was in a central west Pennsylvania troop during the Revolutionary War. One of his brothers was in a Virginia troop. His grandson, James, had three rings made from the knee buckles worn by him in the war; Susie Russel has one and Emma Viola Caldwell has another.

John Montgomery, born June 3, 1787, died Sept. 14, 1858 married Margaret Thompson (called Peggy) Sept. 7, 1809, who was born in Kentucky February 11, 1783 and died Sept. 25, 1858. They are buried in the Sharon Cemetery in Iowa. Tradition says he received a grant of land for his services in the war of 1812. They were the parents of 7 children represented in this index by X1 to X7, the arabic figure representing the order in which born. X5 means that William A was the 5th child. The capital letters represent the grandchildren of John, X4B indicates the second born of the 4th child of John. The small letters represent the 4th generation, the second arabic figures representing the 5th generation, and the second capital the 6th generation X5Ad1 means the 1st born of the 4th born of the 1st. born of the 5th child of John and Margaret.

In presenting this Index of the Decendents of John and Margaret Montgomery we do it with pride and honor to them, to their seven children, and to their fifty-five grandchildren; all of whom are dead except fifteen of the grandchildren. Were this world made up of as honest and upright men and women as these were, what a fine old world this would be. Sometimes it seemed to us they were a little too strict (at the age of seven, my grandparents would not permit me to play with my little wagon on the Sabbath) and we thought them inconsistent, but we would welcome their faith today,—seven children all noted for their uprightness and honesty,—covenanters—we are proud of them.

They were born in Adams county Ohio, and probably with the exception of John Preston, were all married there. James arrived at Burlington, Iowa, October 10, 1856. He established his shoe shop at Morning Sun Iowa, where he worked until he retired on account of age. He was a man short of words. It is said that when a neighbor asked him what he was going to do with some nails he was buying, he replied, "Drive them, sir." Eliza Jane moved to Morning Sun, in 1856; her husband was a blacksmith, as were two of her sons. Joseph Thompson moved to Iowa in 1853; he was living with his daughter Sue at the time of his death. Eleanor who was no doubt named for her grandmother, died in Adams county, Ohio, and is the only one that did not live over the allotted time, three score and ten. William A. is mentioned elsewhere in the index. Mary moved to St. Louis where her husband built a good practice as a Doctor; after his death, she educated her family. In 1883 she moved to Denver with her daughter Mrs. Anderson, where she died. John Preston went to Illinois in 1849, he attended school in St. Louis where he studied medicine; however he did not complete the course. He was in the commission business for many years.

I regret that it has not been possible to make this edition complete in every line; and those decendents not indexed are left out for the reason that we were unable to obtain the data. It is expected to continue to assemble data on these decendents, and it is trusted that we shall be able to have a short biography on each. Many of our cousins have furnished their autobiographies, and the biographies of their folks, and our cousins are requested to furnish their data. We surely expect to have this all printed at some future time. We hoped to complete official data concerning the Revolution army record of James Montgomery, 1744; and the War of 1812 record of John Montgomery, 1787. Any information that any cousin can give will be appreciated by me.

I have mailed all the data that I have received to the Montgomery Genealogy committee, 1415 Montgomery Ave. Philadelphia, Pa. I am interested in the J. Montgomery Seiver, and hope him success in the Publishing of the Montgomery Genealogy.

Credit must be given to many of our cousins for their assistance in making this index possible, and we trust that it may be possible to publish all the biographies at a future date.

Respectfully,

Topeka, Kansas.

R. F. Montgomery,

March 20, 1927

1115 Western Ave.,

The records of the Historical society show that between 60 and 70 Montgomerys served in the Revolutionary War. General Richard Montgomery b 1737 Ireland, lost his life at Quebec. At least 4 James Montgomerys served from Pennsylvania, one of whom heads our family.

John Montgomery b Ireland, 1722 fought the Indians, was a member of Washington's body guard and a Member of Continental Congress.

Rev. Joseph Montgomery was a member of the Pennsylvania Legislature, 1782, and a Chaplain in the Revolution.

Three John Montgomerys served in Ohio Troops in 1812. Many other Montgomerys served in the War of 1812, the Civil War, the Spanish American War and the World War. Seven served in the Colonial Wars from Pennsylvania.

William Montgomery, 1727--1781, was an Indian fighter, lost his life in Kentucky.

Nathan Montgomery was with Daniel Boone in Kentucky. Hugh Montgomery was in the Provincial Congress of South Carolina. Another Hugh Montgomery was an Agent of the U. S. in the Cherokee Indian Purchase 1824.

James Montgomery loaned money to New York, 1780.

Charles Witsyus Montgomery, X5K was a soldier in the Spanish American War.

John Preston Montgomery, X7, gave medicine in a government hospital during the civil war.

Sarah Jane McKinley, X6A, went among the soldiers at the hospitals during the civil war doing nursing, and other acts of kindness.

Our newest arrival is Mariam K. Barker just arrived Mar 20, 1927. She is a granddaughter of Mary Eliza Barker, X6Aa.

Congratulations extended to Mary Eleanor Stevenson, X4Ad and Hester Arabella Breckenridge, X1Bb, each is the mother of 12 fine children, all living and taking their places in this world of ours, with credit to themselves and our family.

Margaret Ann Williams X4B, who married Joseph Allen McIntire was the mother of 14 children. Seven of whom are living. Other large families are William A. Montgomery, 12; Joseph Thompson Montgomery, 11; William Glasgow Montgomery, 10; Mary Ellen McCaughan 10.

James Montgomery headed the first military organization in Linn County Kansas; was colonel of volunteers. His home was burned by proslavery men; led the first temperance crusade in Linn county. John Brown's fort was built on his farm, and the Montgomery Fort was near by. He was one of the most active in the Border war, in and about Linn County.

William Oliver Montgomery, b May 7, 1867 was the last of our family to occupy the old Montgomery Homestead in Jackson County, Kansas. This farm was occupied by the Montgomerys from 1870 to 1920. However 20 acres of this land is still in the family. Mrs. Clara Williamson, X5Aa owns it.

The families of William A. Montgomery, X7 and Joseph A. McIntire X4B were over three weeks in making the trip from Morning Sun, Ia, to Winchester, Kans. William O. Montgomery has some of the furniture that made the trip in the Covered Wagons.

The home of Nettie G. Walton, X5A was often visited by the Indians in the 60's. These visits were not welcomed by her parents, and when one of them decided to hold her on his lap it was still different.

Arthur Littlejohns, Jr, X5A1B born Dec 15, 1926 failed to send his name to us immediately on arrival therefore was not indexed, he is a great great grandson of William A. Montgomery

J. Knox Montgomery, X7C, St. Louis, Mo. and his sister Mrs. Eva Irene Clapp of New York, have assisted in the preparation of this index by not only furnishing data concerning their lineage, but have furnished many leads used in obtaining information on the other lines.

Rose Clare Montgomery, X3Kd, a teacher in the Los Angeles High School has been collecting data concerning the Montgomery family for sometime.

When the Covenanters determined to resist the march of King Charles in 1639 Hugh Montgomerie 7th Earl of Eglinton was chosen Colonel of the men of Renfrewshire.

Major Hugh Montgomerie 12th Earl of Eglinton 1739-1819 fought in the French and Indian war and for Great Britain in the Revolution.

John Wilson Cavin, X2B was with the Rock Island Railroad at Morning Sun, Ia, for over 45 years.
